

Peter and Paul had very different personalities, but they were completely dedicated to the Lord, Jesus Christ. Paul was highly educated. Peter was a fisherman; Paul was from a wealthy family. Peter was impetuous; Paul was thoughtful. These two different personalities are the pillars of the Church at Rome. They gave their lives for the Lord during the persecution of the Emperor Nero. As we honor them, let us pledge that we shall always use our different talents and personalities in the service of the Lord.
